

U.S. & Japan: Moving Toward a Sustainable Future

Education, Innovation, Opportunity

Join the Center for Professional Exchange (CEPEX) and the University of Colorado's Center for Asian Studies (CAS) for a seminar exploring how Japan, one of the world's most energy efficient countries, and Colorado, a leader in the U.S., can move toward sustainability and work together in bringing about a cleaner, greener world.

Speakers include:

Dan Bihn - New Energy Marketing and Communications

Eric Wilson - PhD Candidate, Director of Education at 2nd Green Revolution

Dai Kato - Research Fellow at Center for the study of Conflict, Collaboration and Creative Governance (3CG) at CU Boulder

Moderator: Justin Manger, CEPEX

Location: University of Colorado at Boulder, Eaton Humanities, RM 150

Date: November 9, 2010

Time: 5:00-6:30 PM

Reception and Networking to Follow

CEPEX.ORG

CEPEX is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization dedicated to fostering the U.S.-Japan relationship and cultivating the next generation of Japan experts.

Made possible by the generous support of the Sojitz Foundation and the University of Colorado's Center for Asian Studies (CAS)
For more information, please contact Justin Manger at Manger.Justin@sky.sojitz.com or (202) 441-3091